Derek Frost's Living and Loving in the Age of AIDS (Watkins Publishing, 13 April) is the memoir of a man who lived a life many of us might envy. Being the partner of Jeremy Norton, he who founded Mayfair's famed Embassy Club and the legendary London nightclub Heaven, Derek was truly at the forefront of, and helped sculpt, London's gay scene. However, as the 1980s progressed, AIDS threatened to tear it apart. It's a memoir that's sure to be as glamorous as it is devastating.
